

According to Chernohorenko, the new body should become the main customer for space equipment, products and services in Ukraine. It should unite the efforts of engineers, scientists, and ...

Ukraine plans to form Space Forces by December 31, 2025, as stipulated in the government's action program. By the end of 2025, Ukraine aims to achieve 60% operational ...

Selected central offices of executive authority are granted a "special status". Only very few central executive offices are designated as funds, committees or otherwise. The current Cabinet of Ministers ...

In January 2021, the Cabinet of Ministers approved the concept of the National Targeted Scientific and Technical Space Programme of Ukraine for 2021-2025. It envisaged the creation of up ...

Discover the latest decisions and initiatives of Ukraine's Cabinet of Ministers, including budget allocations and personnel changes.

Appointment of 13 ministers was supported by 253 MPs. There are no new names in the new government. Those who were deputies have become ministers. Instead, Ukraine now has new ...

Ukraine's parliament approved a new Cabinet led by Yuliya Svyrydenko, with key ministerial changes and appointments shaping the government's future.

On several occasions, Elon Musk, the CEO of SpaceX reportedly risked Ukraine's connectivity to the communications network and limited the use of Starlink to control Ukrainian unmanned systems ...

A day later, the new Cabinet of Ministers was voted in. Yuliia Svyrydenko, until very recently Ukraine's first deputy prime minister, was nominated by President Volodymyr Zelensky to ...

According to the source, President Volodymyr Zelenskyy has already made the decision. The new Head of Government is set to be Yulia Svyrydenko, Ukraine's First Deputy Prime Minister. Meanwhile,...

Foreign experts acknowledged Ukraine's strong potential in the space domain and its readiness for expanded cooperation. Ukraine's growing attractiveness is also reflected in its ...

Although the document doesn't define what "sufficient" means, it does mention allocating the upper 6 GHz band for mobile services. The report suggests assigning "at least 200 MHz" of spectrum per...

Web: <https://www.csc-energia.com.pl>